Course Description

Welcome to 7th Grade English Language Arts!! This class will provide students with experiences to grow and learn through an engaging and innovative instructional approach that is correlated with the 7th Grade level content areas and state standards required for advancement. We will follow a pacing guide of state mandated standards for English Language Arts to equip students for high school.

Class Schedule

Block 1 - (8:30-9:35)

Block 2 - (9:37-10:40)

Power Hour - (10:42-11:28)

Lunch - (11:30-12:00)

Block 3 - (12:02-1:06)

Block 4 - (1:08-1:58)

Encore/CW - (2:00-3:30)

Students who are absent from class at any point in the school year will always have their work missed prepared in a folder along with extra time to complete it.

Late Work Policy

Students will have four (4) days after the due date of any classwork and/or homework assignment to complete it for credit. Five (5) points will be taken off each day that the assignment is late.

After-School Tutoring

I will be available to students for Language Arts and/or Social Studies tutoring on Wednesday evenings from 3:30pm until 5:00pm. Students must notify Mr. Drew of their plans to stay after-school for tutoring. I am willing to stay after school on other days by student request.

Classroom Jobs

Students will have the opportunity to uphold classroom jobs. Students will have to apply, be interviewed & hired every month for class jobs and paid with a form of incentive for the work they've done. Student can be fired from their job for behavioral or academic infractions.
